From Ed Beehler via the forum:

Mucho thanks again to Rusty Lacy for putting on another event. Rusty's trials are always first class with excellent accommodations.

Friday's street ride was attended by Rusty, Berndie Lunsford, Garry Hoover, and Ed Beehler. Rusty selected great routes, and an excellent blend of banter, discussion of scenery, motorcycle tech, old trials stories, medical procedures, and a little whining about "butt ache" broke out whenever we stopped.

Saturday was a nice ride to breakfast, followed up by a thorough section review/critique/whining fest, a bit of play riding, and ending with a delightful meal at the Café Lacy prepared by Chef Rusty.

Sunday's event was outstanding. From what I heard, everyone thought line difficulty was just about perfect. The weather was great, although a few were heard to complain that they wished it was a bit warmer. Just kidding. The occasional breeze and clouds helped. Shade was greatly appreciated!

Thanks again to Rusty and all who attended/helped!

Detail results included at end of writeup.
